June: LGBTQ+ Pride Month

What is Pride Month?

- Celebrated each June to commemorate the 1969 Stonewall Uprising in Manhattan, NY
  - 6 days-long protest over police treatment of Stonewall patrons
- Also a month to generate awareness and honor the following:
  - A celebration of overall community progress, the freedom to openly love in spite of gender, and overall gender diversity
  - Important LGBTQ+ figures to advance rights of community
  - Those who have lost their lives due to hate crimes
  - Those who have lost their lives to HIV/AIDS
  - Recognition of role LGBTQ+ individuals have had on local, national, and international issues
- Declared originally by President Clinton as “Gay and Lesbian Pride Month” in 1999
  - Evolved to LGBT Pride Month under President Obama in 2009
  - LGBTQ+ Pride Month under President Biden – all inclusive

Major LGBTQ+ Rights Moments

- June 1967 – Loving v Virginia Supreme Court Decision
  - Outlawing nationally the prohibition of interracial marriages
- 1969 – Stonewall Riots
- 1970 – Christopher St. Liberation Day
  - Commemorating one year anniversary of Stonewall Riots
  - Considered the first pride parade
- May 1973 – Diagnostic and Statistic Manual Removed Homosexuality as a Mental Disorder
- June 26, 2003 – Lawrence v Texas Supreme Court Decision
  - Laws outlawing same-sex sexual activities outlawed
- 2013 – Diagnostic and Statistic Manual Recategorizes Gender Dysphoria
  - Identifying a mismatch between one's gender assigned at birth and identity is not identified as pathological
- June 26, 2015 – Obergefell v Hodges Supreme Court Decision
  - Marriage Equality Nationally

Client Services

- How can we as a Continuum of Care provide client-centered services to LGBTQ+ households?
  - Progress is always two steps forward, one step back
    - State legislatures, school boards adopting anti-LGBTQ+ measures
- Recent Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) report found that LGBTQ+ Veterans had statistically worse physical and mental health outcomes.
  - Compounded if an intersection of BIPOC and LGBTQ+
- Some initial, small steps include:
  - Using pronouns in email signatures (ie. He/Him/His)
  - Displaying inclusive organization materials (posters)
  - Drafting an organizational position statement on cultural competence which sets standards and expectations
  - Referring LGBTQ+ clients to appropriate community resources
  - Inquiring about pronouns at initial conversation with clients
  - Becoming familiar with changing language and norms

Elder Abuse: It's More Than Scams

Wednesday, June 15, 2022
10:00am -11:30am

Every year, June 15 is recognized as World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. Several Florida Area Agencies on Aging have partnered together to take the opportunity to educate the community on the importance of elder abuse awareness and prevention.

This free workshop will feature several subject experts providing information and tips on how to report elder abuse, how to protect yourself against cyber crimes and how to uncover the unsuspecting traps of financial scammers.

Workshop Speakers

Donna Moses, Risk Management Lead Member Victim Advocate, Suncoast Credit Union
Uncovering the unsuspecting traps of financial scammers

Ivonne Carmona, Human Services Program Specialist, Adult Protective Services
Defining elder abuse and how to report it

Cindy Liebes, Chief Program Officer, Cyber Security Network
Exposing cyber crimes and how to prevent becoming a victim
