LEARNING SERIES

Joint event for Duval and Nassau counties
Wednesday, Nov. 15 • 9–10:30 a.m.

What's ahead for Duval County schools

Dr. Dana Kriznar is the interim superintendent of schools for Duval County. In this virtual forum, Dr. Kriznar will address topics affecting education in our area, including:

- How the Duval County School District $1 million property tax increase has been put to use
- The book review process and what that has meant for our students and families
- Behavioral Health and Bullying Prevention programs
- What is the success rate of the Parent Academy? How many families and children have they served?

Breakfast Learning Series is free for parents, caregivers, social services professionals and the general public. The monthly programs provide beneficial information and opportunities for everyone involved with helping parents and raising children.

Accommodations for individuals with disabilities will be made upon request in advance. Interpreter services are provided free of charge for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing. Family Support Services is community-based care lead agency contracted with the Florida Department of Children and Families.

Dr. Dana Kriznar
Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Dana Kriznar began her service to Duval County students in 1986 as a mathematics teacher. She taught at John Gorrie Junior High School and then at Mandarin Middle School until 1993, when she entered school administration. In May, the Duval County School Board selected Dr. Kriznar to serve as the superintendent of schools for a six-month period while it conducts a national search for the successor to former superintendent, Dr. Diana Greene.
