Car counts are easier to do in the day and if you are doing something like placing yourself outside of a library, shopping center or convenience stores where folks may be. In Putnam, I stayed at a local intersection of convenience stores and met a large number of folks reporting themselves as homeless.

08:49:41 From Beth Mixson to Everyone:

A follow up to the cars questions, will any teams be counting in areas where people historically sleep/

08:50:35 From Beth Mixson to Everyone:

No

08:55:27 From Kalilah Jamall, CHI, She/Her to Everyone:

If anyone is having trouble registering still, let us know!

Yes! This is also where Zone Commanders are super helpful. We need folks who know areas very well to help direct our volunteers. I'll have Charles expand - I don't think we go into areas considered encampments.

09:17:51 From Robin Bird to Everyone:

If anyone born male responds "yes" to HIV related illness, we may be able to help with permanent housing. I have A LOT of openings. Call me or they can call me at 904-568-8321. I also can possibly help chronically homeless families with PSH.

09:18:58 From Beth Mixson to Everyone:

I didn't mean encampments. I meant parking lots
