09:00:00 From Ashley Pratt - Mayo Clinic to Everyone:

Great point. DV is definitely an issue

09:01:26 From LauraLane to Everyone:

I really appreciate this discussion. Please offer why disengaged youth relates to community safety. Thanks!

09:02:33 From Meredith Smith to Everyone:

Great point, Dawn. We are all focusing on an overwhelming dearth of meeting the community's basic needs.

09:03:37 From Keith Money to Everyone:

So, perhaps a hierarchal list?

09:03:42 From Meredith Smith to Everyone:

Social inclusion is at the fulcrum on this list.

09:03:47 From Dr. Hodo (She, her, hers) to Everyone:

What about the new law that doesn't require employers to give employees a chance to get water when needed due to the heat?

09:04:23 From Dr. Hodo (She, her, hers) to Everyone:

Someone working outside needs water breaks or the potential of heat stroke is massive.

09:16:35 From Meredith Smith to Everyone:

Also mentioning quality of housing for renters. We have patients who on paper state they are "housed" but don't have access to running water or indoor plumbing.

09:18:39 From Tabatha Wilemon, Clear Health Alliance to Everyone:

Is there a determination of how many homeless have SMI and or SUD?

There is also a lot of mainstream media saying the Homeless are addicts

09:23:33 From Tabatha Wilemon, Clear Health Alliance to Everyone:

I just can't help but notice the increase in people living on the street with SUD in my area (Emerson and Phillips). It is a very large number and has increased in my 2 years living in San Marco area.

09:23:54 From nancy.eisele to Everyone:

Most individuals and families experiencing homelessness work. Also the data collection being collected by the state has different definitions for "stable housing:."
